The Toy Museum

This museum is in the centre of the town, a few metres from the cathedral, and near the market. It contains dolls, dolls' houses, books, games and pastimes, mechanical and constructional toys. In this collection there are toys made by all sorts of toy manufacturers from the most important to the smallest, including the most ordinary toys and the most precious. There are also records of children's pastimes over the last hundred and fifty years. Most major manufacturing countries of Europe had toy industries in the last century; French and German factories produced millions of toys each year. Many collectors of toys think that the second half of the nineteenth century was the best period for toy production and the museum has many examples of toys from this period which are still in perfect condition. There is now a growing interest in the toys of the 1920s and 1930s and as a result of this the museum has begun to build up a collection from these years. Visitors to the museum will find that someone is always available to answer questions - we hope you will visit us. Hours of opening 10.00-17.30 every day (except December 25 and 26).

II. Use the words in capitals to form a word that fits. (10x1p = 10p)

None of us finds essay writing easy. When you can't see the person you are talking to (1).....(COMMUNICATE) is much more difficult. You have to be (2) (CARE) to communicate your message clearly, but how do you do that? The first thing you must think about is who you're writing to. Then you can make a (3) (DECIDE) about how formal it should be. A letter to a friend is more like(4) (SPEAK) English, so your(5) (PERSON) should be apparent while writing, while a letter to a hotel manager is formal. You also need to think about what kind of thing you're writing. The language in a story, for example, should be (6) (EXPRESS), but the language in a report or an article should be much more(7).....(INFORM). When you're writing a formal essay giving your opinion, make sure the (8) (INTRODUCE) gives a general idea of the subject. Later, in the (9) (CONCLUDE) you should summarise your opinion. Each time you write, you have to make a (10) (CHOOSE) about what you're going to do. If you do that right, then there's nothing to stop you becoming a good writer!

III. Read the text below and decide which word A, B, C, or D best fits each space. Write the letter in the space provided within the text. There is an example at the beginning (0). (10x1p = 10p)

The Popularity of Social Networks

Every morning Sarah turns (0) on her computer. First, she checks her email. Then, she visits a social networking website to (1) ___ out what her friends are doing. On this website, she reads news from her friends. For example, she may look at comments her friends made about movies, music, books, and other friends. On her profile page, Sarah writes a short (2) ___ about what she is doing. Like many young people, Sarah enjoys meeting and communicating with others on social networks. These websites let people see what their friends are doing and thinking.

Sarah is (3) ___ of an important trend in communication. Social networking sites (4) ___ more and more popular every day, and they are popular all (5) ___ the world. In Japan, the top site is Moo. In Europe, it is Bebo. The (6) ___ popular site in Latin America is Orkul. In the United States the top site is Facebook. In fact, Facebook is one of the most popular social networking sites in the world. A Harvard University student started Facebook in 2004, and it spread more than 400 million users in just a few years.

Why is the social networking trend spreading (7) ____ rapidly? One reason why these websites are popular is because people are social. We like to communicate (8) ____ other people. We (9) ____ friends with people in school, at work, and online. Most people like to stay closely connected to their friends and family. We use cell phones, email, instant messaging, and websites to learn what our friends are doing. (10)____ Internet is a good way to socialize and communicate, and social networking sites allow people to do this in many ways.
